

Meet some of our sea friends!

Bluemussels (Mytilus edulis)

A bivalve that attaches to rocks and filters water

Eats: Plankton and microalgae

Lifespan: Lives for up to xx years

Temperature tolerance:

Baltic Sea clam (Mya arenaria)

Mya the Baltic Sea Clam

Eats plankton and microalgae

Lifespan for xx years

Temperature tolerance: xx

Perch (Perca fluviatilis)

A fish. Does fish things.

Eats a bunch of things

Lifespan: Lives for xx years

Temperature tolerance:

Bladderwrack (Fucus vesiculosus)

A seaweed, providing shelter for many species.

Lives on rocky substrates

Eats sunlight

Lifespan for xx years at depths of xx

Temperature tolerance:

Harris mudcrab (Rhithropanopeus harrisii)

Travelled here all the way from North America and seems to really like it here

Eats everything

Lives for xx years

Temperature tolerance:

Snails, amphipods and isopods Hydrobia, Idotea, Gammarus, Jaera...

Some of the species that live in bladderwrack

Eats green, red and brown algae

Lives for 1-2 years

Temperature tolerance:

